Michael's expeditions have taken him to some of the most iconic peaks in the Andes, including Aconcagua, the highest mountain in the Americas. He has also led numerous treks through the Inca Trail and the Amazon rainforest.

The Michael Talbot Adventure

The Michael Talbot Adventure is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to join Michael on an unforgettable journey through the Andes Mountains. This expedition is designed for adventurers of all levels, from beginners to experienced climbers.

The adventure begins in the vibrant city of Lima, Peru. From there, we will travel to the Sacred Valley of the Incas, where we will visit the ancient ruins of Machu Picchu. We will then trek through the stunning Cordillera Blanca, known for its towering snow-capped peaks and crystal-clear lakes.

The highlight of the adventure will be our ascent of Huayna Potosi, a 6,088-meter (19,970-foot) peak in the Bolivian Andes. This challenging climb will test our limits, but it will also reward us with breathtaking views from the summit.

What's Included

The Michael Talbot Adventure includes the following:

- All transportation within Peru and Bolivia
- Accommodation in comfortable hotels and lodges
- All meals
- Professional guiding services
- Equipment rental (including tents, sleeping bags, and backpacks)
- Medical support
- Trip insurance
