Every Thursday evening, a select group of guests gather at a charming farmhouse in the village of Montone to savor a traditional Umbrian meal prepared with the freshest local ingredients. As you step into the warm and inviting dining room, you are greeted with the tantalizing aromas of homemade pasta, grilled meats, and freshly baked bread.

The menu at The Umbrian Thursday Night Supper Club changes with the seasons, showcasing the best of Umbrian cuisine. Guests can expect to indulge in dishes such as:

- Strangozzi al Tartufo: A hearty pasta dish with black truffles, a prized delicacy of Umbria
- Porchetta: A succulent roasted pork dish marinated with herbs and spices

- Torta al Testo: A thin, crispy flatbread filled with a variety of ingredients, such as spinach, cheese, or meat
- Crostata di Visciole: A rustic fruit tart made with sour cherries

Each dish is lovingly prepared by local chefs who have mastered the art of traditional Umbrian cooking. As you savor each bite, you will not only taste the delicious flavors of Italy but also experience the warmth and hospitality of the Umbrian people.

The Umbrian Thursday Night Supper Club is more than just a dining experience; it is a celebration of Umbrian culture and the local culinary traditions. Guests are encouraged to engage with the chefs, learn about the ingredients and cooking techniques, and immerse themselves in the rich history of Umbrian cuisine.

The supper club is also a showcase for local wines. Umbria is renowned for its excellent wines, and guests will have the opportunity to sample a variety of regional vintages, from crisp white wines to full-bodied reds. The sommelier will guide you through each pairing, explaining the flavors and characteristics of the wines and how they complement the dishes.

The Umbrian Thursday Night Supper Club is a unique and unforgettable experience that offers a truly authentic taste of Italy. Whether you are a food enthusiast, a wine connoisseur, or simply looking for a memorable culinary journey, this supper club is sure to satisfy your senses and create lasting memories.
