

They Called Me Number One: A Story of Identity, Resilience, and Triumph

In the tapestry of life, we are all assigned a number. A number that signifies our place in line, our position in society, our worthiness. But what happens when the number we are given doesn't align with who we truly are? What happens when we are forced to conform to a label that doesn't fit? This is the central question that drives They Called Me Number One, a powerful and inspiring memoir by Leslie Chin.
